Ways to Watch

Method 1: Download HD File to USB and plug directly into Smart TV. This is the recommended method

- Using a web browser like Google Chrome, Safari, Firefox or Internet Explorer, visit the video page.
- To download the desired file, you must click the downward facing arrow on the right-hand side of the screen

• Click Download and click Original. This will save the HD file to your computer's download folder. Download time will be dependent on your internet speed.

Download file
Original 594.13MB 1920 x 1080	Ŧ
HD 1080p 155.34MB 1920 x 1080	$\overline{\mathbf{A}}$
HD 720p 80.91MB 1280 x 720	$\overline{\mathbf{A}}$
SD 540p 46.66MB 960 x 540	$\overline{\mathbf{A}}$
SD 360p 17.57MB 640 x 360	$\overline{\mathbf{v}}$
SD 240p 10.35MB 426 x 240	$\overline{\mathbf{T}}$

- Open the downloaded file folder and copy the file to a USB drive (8GB or more in size is required.)
 If you are downloading files larger than 4GB the USB will need to be formatted as NTFS or exFAT. Instructions for PC & Instructions for MAC can be found with a quick YouTube Search.
 Make sure your Smart TV can accept the NTFS or exFAT formats otherwise you'll need to format
 as FAT32 and only copy files smaller than 4GB onto the USB
- Once on a USB drive, you can insert the drive into the USB slot of your Smart TV and view the concert

Method 2: Streaming* online via web browser

• Click the video page link. You will be able to watch the video via web browser. ie: Google Chrome, Safari, Firefox, Internet Explorer

Method 3: Streaming* Via Vimeo App on mobile device to Google Chromecast or Apple TV

- If you wish to stream to your Smart TV or device, it is best to open the link on your mobile and use the Vimeo app
- Access this email link from your mobile and click the streaming link above. It will open a web page. You will see the file. Click "Open in App" (Vimeo). You may need to install the Vimeo app which is a free download.
- If you receive an error message "request failed: not found (404)" click the "clock" icon on the page to "Add to Watch Later" (you must have a free Vimeo account and be logged in to access this).
- Access the file via Vimeo app by selecting the "Watch Later" tab.
- Once the file is playing in the Vimeo App you can click the "casting" button. A list of eligible Chromecast or Apple TV Devices will appear. Select the desired device and watch

Method 4: Via Vimeo App on Smart TV

- Click the video page link. It will open a web page and you will see the file.
- Click the "clock" icon on the page to "Add to Watch Later" (you must log in to Vimeo to access this).
- Open the Vimeo app on your Smart TV and log into your account.
- Access the file via Vimeo app by selecting the "Watch Later" tab.

* Streaming is dependent on your internet speed.
